A Message to Brothers in KHORASAN

This is a message to our brothers and the brave Mujahideen in Khorasan. These are our brothers that have remained steadfast despite facing enemies from all around them, whether it be the betrayal of the Taliban and al-Qaidah, or the many tribal factions and Afghan army, along with aerial bombardment of the Crusaders with their global coalition. We have observed the recent advancement of the drug dealers and homosexuals that have sold the deen and planted themselves as the leaders of Afghanistan in Kabul, all the while taking orders when to bark and when to behave by their puppet masters from the Rafida of the majoosi wonderland Iran, and sometimes their real fathers from the ISI of Pakistan.

Surely, they are worse for us than the infidels, because they are faithfully performing actions for the infidels while calling themselves Muslims and throwing dust in the eyes of the believers, but their cheap shop will soon be gone. There has still been an ongoing effort from the soldiers of Allah to keep the jihad constant.

With the blessed events that have unfolded in recent weeks, we'll like to congratulate our fearless lions for successfully attacking the military hospital and sending the commander of druggies and a judge into the pit of hell. Also, the recent operations on the filthy Rafidah are an excellent ointment for the wounds of this Ummah. And we hope and expect that Mujahideen will continue to shed their impure blood in the same way until the whole religion is for only Allah. My brothers, we pray to Allah Subhana-hu wa Ta'ala for your safety at every moment. We are proud of you.

It is not to say that there have not been any difficulties for the brothers and sisters. As those who are away from the situation, we want to send a message to our brothers and sisters that Wallahi! we have not forgotten you or your sacrifices.

Not a day goes by that we do not check on your condition and make dua for you! Not a day goes by that we are not worried for you! Muslims are like a body. If one part of it hurts, then the whole body feels pain. My precious muhajireen of Khurasan, if you are in trouble, and become restless, we surely feel the pain of your wounds.

We know the situation has gotten troublesome as the drug dealers are checking homes one by one to exterminate you. We know you have many troubles. We know even the sisters and children are not spared by the filthy rafida-loving, shrine-worshipping dogs who befriend the enemies of Allah! Indeed, it will cost them a lot to put the religion of Allah behind thier back and wear the cloak of expediency.

But O guardians of the religion! we have a message of hope to you, and you will be happy to hear it, in sha Allah. Just as the wounds of this ummah are shared, so are the joys. If the disbelievers and apostates are knocked off in any corner of the world, a wave of joy arises among Muslims.

You may not be aware of what is going on in the outside world as you are engaged in pleasing your Lord. We swear by Allah! Your jihad and accusations against Taliban have been proven true. Many are beginning to think whether the Islamic State has been correct this entire time.

Strong supporters of Taliban are beginning to reject it. Those you would not imagine are perceiving the truth. Be patient because the fruits of your efforts are beginning to ripe. Do you not remember Iraq in 2011? What was its condition in 2014? Was it not under the banner of Tawheed?

Whenever difficulty comes for this Taifah Mansura, it is followed by victory. In sha Allah, a new generation of muhajireen and mujahideen is being prepared, who will shed their blood for the Shari'ah. In sha Allah. They are relying on you after relying on Allah first. They will support the Mahdi and raise the black banners. So do not think that even a single blast or bullet is wasted.

Every act of enjoining good and forbidding evil which will happen in the Khilafa and every call to Tawheed that will occur in the future in Darul Islam, it is actually your jihad and early sacrifices that will be rewarded, multiplied and increased by the Most Merciful.

As my brothers are availing every opportunity to eliminate the disease of this Ummah i.e. Rafidah, the fool Talib are busy in condoling, not just that but also giving key positions to them, in hope they might not get offended because they failed to provide them security from the defenders of Khilafah.

But this is just the beginning of a new phase of the epic wars. Soon these rebels will become insane by their utter failures and immense losses. Every drop of blood will be revenged, by Allah's will.

And to those who are watching from a distance, waiting for their turn, know that this is the time when perhaps Allah is going to look on His earth to select those for the task that lies ahead. It is these crucial days that we need to show ourselves as strong candidates for hijrah and jihad, for battles and victory, for raising the flags of Tawheed and conquering lands. We must show patience in refraining from sins and steadfastness in doing good. Make istigaatha, praise Allah and beg Him to choose us.

Are we not envious to those that made it to Sham and Iraq in 2013-14 and those early days? Did we not dream about living in the land of Islam when we saw the hundreds of videos? Did we not weep out of sincerity and yen? Did we not pray to Allah that He gives us a chance too? Did we not make promises to Him that once He chooses us, we'll put our best efforts?

Allah does not guide the faasiqeen. So, we must purify ourselves for this task. Let us start now, Bismillah...
